A SAFE HARBOR IN HISTORIC CHARLESTON

Located in the heart of Charleston, South Carolina's famous historic district, the Anchorage Inn was originally built as a cotton warehouse circa 1840. Meticulously restored in 2006, the Anchorage Inn offers guests the charm of an era gone by, while still providing the modern comforts one should expect. Guests will enjoy over three hundred years of history, accompanied with world renowned dining options, antique and boutique shopping, and distinguished museums - all just a short stroll from our front door.
